SINCE the completion a year ago of our Regimental History, there have come into our possession war-time pictures of some of our Comrades, also other pictures relating to our Regiment which did not appear in our History Book.

Also among the letters received from members of our old Regiment were some expressing regret that they had not arranged to furnish their pictures for the History. Finally our Veteran Association decided to issue a notice to all surviving Comrades of the Regiment that an Album would be prepared to be issued at the time of our annual dinner in 1906, such Album to contain the pictures in the illustrated History and such others as the Album Committee could procure in the interval, and that this last opportunity would be afforded to survivors of our old Regiment to have their pictures, either taken before or since the war, included in the Album.

The work herewith presented is the result, and it will, we trust, prove a valuable supplement to our Regimental History.

MAJOR-GENERAL ABRAM DURYEE.

Major-General Abram Duryee was a member of the Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G., for 21 years, in which regiment he was promoted from private through the different grades to Colonel, which office he held for ten years.

On the outbreak of the Civil War he organized the famous Duryee Zouaves, 5th N. Y. Vols., and was soon afterwards promoted to Brigadier General, and then to Major-General. He died Sept. 27, 1890, aged 76 years.

Our regiment, the 2d Duryee Zouaves, 165th N. Y. Vol. Infantry, was also named after General Duryee, who took a lively interest in our Veteran Association, and presided at its first public meeting.

Before Port Hudson, June 11, 1863.

Dear Sam :

We have made an attack on the Batteries here and we have sustained very heavy loss and were repulsed, as I have already informed you through a letter to mother. We are about to make another assault, and I have been detailed, with one hundred and fifty (150) men, to lead it. That is to be the forlorn hope. I send this through a friend of mine who is kind enough to volunteer to see it posted from New Orleans. The affair will be pretty desperate. I will let you know at the earliest opportunity what the result may be. I merely write this to let you know where I am and to be prepared for anything that may happen. In case I fall, I will bid you now an affectionate farewell.

Your affectionate brother,

HENRY W. HICKS, Jr.,

Acting Major 165th N. Y. S. V., 2d Zouaves.

Don't say anything to the family until you hear the result. If I fall, my friends in the regiment will inform you.

LINCOLN AND GRANT

Remarks of President Abraham Lincoln when presenting to General Grant his commission as General-in-Chief of the Armies of the United States, and General Grant's reply.

President Lincoln said:

"General Grant, the nation's appreciation of what you have done, and its reliance upon you for what remains to be done in the existing great struggle, are now presented, with this commission constituting you Lieutenant-General in the Army of the United States. With this high honor devolves upon you, also, a corresponding responsibility. As the country herein trusts you so, under God, it will sustain you. I scarcely need to add that with what I here speak for the nation goes my own hearty concurrence."

General Grant, in response, said:

"Mr. President, I accept the commission with gratitude for the high honor conferred. With the aid of the noble armies that have fought in so many fields for our common country, it will be my earnest endeavor not to disappoint your expectations. I feel the full weight of the responsibilities now devolving on me, and I know that if they are met it will be due to those armies, and, above all, to the favor of that Providence which leads both nations and men."
